

Through dance, we form connections and share energy amongst each other. That is what helps us become a stronger unit.