

With our choreography, the importance is how the audience perceives the message of the dance and how they relate to it.